

Innovation Capability!

3 days Change Agent – Competence for Managers

Why do people not “automatically” become innovative after Change Management Tools have elaborately been introduced? Without consequently supportive leadership, the best methods and tools do not work – this is where this training starts. We are aiming at managers that see themselves as multipliers for useful changes.

Your Benefit

There is nothing more constant than change. The willingness and ability to make useful changes is the key success factor – become an effective multiplier/Change Agent for this pioneering field.

Leading by supporting in plain language – Your leadership behavior is orientated to development.

Practical orientation – we exclusively work with cases from your everyday working life. Your individual improvement process already starts during the workshop.

Training – You will directly apply useful methods and techniques of Change Management.

Your experience new, interactive forms of training – this workshop is intensive and fun!
